

Step into comfort, functionality, and convenience at 33 Townhouse Crescent, Brampton! This thoughtfully designed townhouse is perfect for new home buyers and investors alike, offering an affordable property with exceptional features. The well-designed floor plan features a spacious combined living and dining room, making it ideal for hosting gatherings or enjoying a family meal. Off the living room, step out onto a private patio that's framed by a fully fenced backyard, providing a serene space for relaxation.

With three generous-sized bedrooms, there is plenty of room for everyone. The finished basement adds versatile living space, offering endless possibilities, perfect for a home office, playroom, or entertainment area.

What sets this property apart is the rare two-car parking right outside your front door, eliminating the hassle of carrying groceries or personal items from a distant parking spot. Convenience abounds as you are just a short walk from local amenities including a variety of restaurants, shopping centers, and transit options. This townhouse is a prime opportunity for comfortable living in a thriving community. Don't miss out on this incredible opportunity!
